Question No. BE15/084

Senator Collins asked the following question from the 27 and 28 May 2015 hearing:

1. Considering the National Book Council and the National Program for Excellence in the Arts as possible precedents, what consultations have taken place with Screen Australia about a National Film Council and a National Program for Excellence in Film, under which the Minister for the Arts would decide which film projects should be funded?

The answer to the honourable senator's question is as follows:

1. None
