Question No. BE17-020

Senator Macdonald asked the following question on 24 May 2017:

CHAIR: We might just pause there. I will come back to you. Your time finish some time ago. I just have a couple of questions. Mr Moraitis, you were not around during the time of this particular inquiry—

Mr Moraitis: Yes, I was.

CHAIR: Were you the secretary then? Sorry, I could have sworn you were not. I did live through that inquiry, unlike anyone else here, I suspect. Did I hear you right before when you said you would take something on notice to see what other departments have done?

Mr Moraitis: No, I said we engaged on that recommendation with all departments to bring it to their attention. In response to that recommendation, we actually noted that we supported that recommendation and that we had followed up with departments, who had assured us that they had procedures in place for that purpose.

CHAIR: So you did follow up with other departments?

Mr Moraitis: My recollection is yes, but I will check how, when and what time.

CHAIR: That is what I thought you said—you would take on notice what follow-up you did to make sure that other agencies—

Ms Jones: For the specifics, we should take it on notice, but we did contact all agencies and alert them to the requirement, and then we sought and received assurances from them. I can provide the details of that on notice, but we did request that they come back and positively advise us whether or not they had appropriate procedures in place.
