Answer:

(a) The expansion of streamlined visa processing (SVP) arrangements to the vocational education and training sector was announced as a 2014-15 budget measure (please refer to Visa simplification to support the vocational education and training sector at http://www.budget.gov.au/2014-15/content/bp2/html/bp2_expense-16.htm).

From 23 November 2014 SVP was extended to eligible advanced diploma level students in the vocational education and training and higher education sectors.

(b) The 2014-15 budget papers predicted that the expansion of SVP to the vocational education and training sector would result in approximately $6.7 million revenue over three years from 2015-16.

(c) Expansion of SVP to the vocational education and training sector is managed within the department's current resources.

(d) Students entering the vocational education and training sector have a number of costs including tuition, living expenses and visa application charges.

The base visa application charge for a student visa, including a Vocational Education Training Sector (subclass 572) visa, is $535. An additional applicant charge of $405 applies to each additional applicant aged 18 years or older. If an additional applicant is less than 18 years of age the additional applicant charge is $135. Depending on the student's circumstances, they may be liable for the subsequent temporary application charge of $700.

(e) It is up to the student to determine arrangements for payment of visa application charges. In some cases, student scholarships may cover visa fees.

(f) Please see the response provided to (d).

(g) The expansion of SVP does not impose additional visa costs on prospective vocational education and training students.

(h) Under the Commonwealth Administrative Arrangements Orders 2013, the department is responsible for managing the entry, stay and departure arrangements for non-citizens and administering relevant legislation particularly the Migration Act 1958 and Migration Regulations 1994.

(i) The department consulted with key stakeholders including members of the Education Visa Consultative Committee. For information on membership and terms of reference for this committee please see www.immi.gov.au/About/Pages/stakeholder-engagement/national/other-structures.aspx.

All state education departments and some TAFE representative bodies, such as TAFE Directors Australia, are members of the Education Visa Consultative Committee.

(j) The expansion of SVP to the vocational education and training sector was implemented as a budget measure. The department prepares regulatory impact statements for all measures in line with the government's requirements.

(k) As a result of the expansion of SVP to the vocational education and training sector, the government expects enrolments in that sector to increase.

(l) From March 2014, an additional 19 education providers offering degree level courses were granted access to SVP.

(m) Please see the Attachment A for a list of current SVP providers and their nominated educational business partners as at 23 November 2014. This list is available at <http://www.comlaw.gov.au/Details/F2014L01511>.

(n) In November 2013, 22 eligible higher education providers were invited to submit a SVP opt-in application. On 22 March 2014, 19 private higher education providers gained access to SVP arrangements. Following the expansion of the SVP to the vocational education and training sector, the Assistant Minister for Immigration and Border Protection approved 55 additional education providers to access SVP arrangements from 23 November 2014.
