Senator Sterle, Glenn asked:

Senator STERLE: And I believe—and you will be able to help me out here—that Clayton Utz had an SC representing the government and two lawyers, to the best of your knowledge?

Mr Mrdak: I am aware that we did use external legal providers. I am not sure of the number. We certainly did have a senior counsel, yes.

Senator STERLE: Can you tell us how many lawyers there were? Can someone let us know?

Mr Mrdak: I will take it on notice.

Senator STERLE: I am also led to believe, Mr Mrdak, that they were not Perth based. They were flown in from the eastern states for these cases.

Mr Mrdak: Again, I would have to check that.

Answer:

Junior and senior counsel and one instructing solicitor were at the hearing. They were Canberra and Sydney based. This facilitated efficient instructing.

Senator McCarthy, Malrindirri asked:

Senator McCARTHY: Mr Mrdak, can you provide a list of former members of parliament who have been appointed to conduct reviews, inquiries and consultancies on behalf of the department?

Mr Mrdak: Yes. I am not aware of too many. I think the only one that I can think of readily is Mr Warwick Smith AO or AC—I will check his title—who has been engaged to undertake a review of the Regional Development Australia network. He was also involved in undertaking the functional efficiency review of the department. I am not aware of any others in this term of government, but I will take that on notice.

Senator McCARTHY: If you could. Could you also, with those others, if there are others, what were they appointed to? I return to Mr Smith. How much was he remunerated?

Mr Mrdak: I would have to take that on notice.

Senator McCARTHY: And if you could for any other previous former members of parliament?

Mr Mrdak: Certainly.

Answer:

Since 1 January 2015, the following former member of parliament has been appointed to conduct reviews, inquiries and consultancies on behalf of the department.

Appointment	Review	Remuneration*
Mr Warwick Smith AM	Regional Development Australia network	$36,300
	Functional and Efficiency Review	$22,500

Topic: Government waste

Proof Hansard Page: Written (14 March 2017)

Senator Xenophon, Nick asked:

Given that government and opposition politicians have all raised concerns over time and had policies on government waste:

- a) Is there a central government authority responsible for the elimination of waste?
- b) If so
 - i. Is there a government wide definition on the meaning of 'waste', and if so, what is that definition?
 - ii. How does this central government authority monitor and manage waste within the Department?
 - iii. Is there a central government mechanism (e.g. phone number, email address, web site) for public servants or contractors to report Departmental waste?
 - iv. How much Departmental waste was identified by the central government authority in FY 13/14, FY 14/15 and FY 15/16?
- c) If not:
 - i. Is there a departmental definition on the meaning of 'waste', and if so, what is that definition?
 - ii. What are the Department's arrangements for monitoring and managing waste?
 - iii. Is there a central Departmental mechanism (e.g. phone number, email address, web site) for public servants or contractors to report Departmental waste?
 - iv. How much waste was identified by the Department in FY 13/14, FY 14/15 and FY 15/16?
- d) In either case:
 - i. Can Departmental officers or contractors report waste anonymously?
 - ii. Are they afforded a protection if they do so?

Answer:

- a) Refer to the Department of Finance's response to Additional Senate Estimates Question F128.
- b) Refer to the Department of Finance's response to Additional Senate Estimates Question F128.
- c) i. No
 - ii. The department has established a number of mechanisms to identify and respond to concerns around wasteful practices, including an online complaint form (available to both the public and to employees), an incident reporting system and a specific Red Tape email inbox for employees to identify processes and practices that they view as overly complex. Reports on each of these mechanisms are regularly provided to the department's Executive.
 - iii. Yes, the department has an online complaint form, an incident reporting system and a Red Tape email inbox.
 - iv. N/A
- d) i. Yes. Mechanisms include an online complaint form, an incident reporting system, and under the Public Interest Disclosure Act 2013.
 - ii. Yes, as per the Public Interest Disclosure Act 2013, the Privacy Act 1988, and guidelines such as those under the APS Code of Conduct (both internal and as provided by the Australian Public Service Commission).
