Senator FAWCETT: The ASRR, some of the updates you provided online, particularly your speech in Canada about some of the progress and things moving forward—can you give us an update against each of the 37 recommendations of the Forsyth report, just as to where you are at and your time frame for implementation.

Mr Skidmore: We can certainly give you an update with regard to the government response to the Aviation Safety Regulation Review report and what our implementation is on those.

Answer:

The most recent update on progress with implementing the Government's Response to the Aviation Safety Regulation Review will be available on the Department of Infrastructure and Regional Development website in September 2016, once approved by the Minister for Infrastructure and Transport. A copy will be provided to Senator Fawcett and the Committee.
