Senator Ludwig asked:

How many documents (include the amount of copies) have been printed from Supplementary Budget Estimates in November 2013 to date? How many of these printed documents were also published online?

Answer:

The Department (including the Australian Antarctic Division)

For the purpose of this response, a 'document' is defined as a book, booklet, brochure, guide, flyer, or factsheet.

Sixteen documents have been printed since the Supplementary Budget Estimates in November 2013 to 24 February 2014, with print quantities ranging from 100 to 4,000. Nine of the 16 documents had a printing quantity of 500 or less.

The Department uses a print management system to manage Panel and Multi-User List arrangements which tracks and reports all communication product activity including the volume of print material produced.

All of the Department's public documents are published online, excluding stationery items such as business cards or promotional materials such as banners.
