Department of Education Question No. ED0390_14

Senator Wright provided in writing.

Question

School visits

1. How many schools has the Secretary of the Department of Education visited in the past twelve months? 2. How many of these are government schools?

Answer

The Secretary regularly meets with Directors-General and Chief Executive Officers of state and territory education departments and the non-government schooling sector, representing more than 9,400 schools across Australia. These meetings deal with issues specifically related to school education policy and operational matters.
