Senator Faulkner—You might take this on notice for me. I would be very interested to know—that is not right; it is not true to say ‘I would be very interested to know’. You might let us know the original cost of the billiard tables.

Senator FIFIELD—In constant dollar terms?

Senator Faulkner—No. We can make our own judgments. This is a very clever committee, Senator. If none of the rest of us can do it, I know that you would be able to help.

Answer

- 1 Of the six billiard tables previously located in Parliament House:
 - (a) four tables cost $2,860 each; and
