Answer:

1. The sum spent on internal legal services for the Australian Public Service Commission (APSC) for this financial year to date is $127,899 inclusive of GST. The internal legal costs are for staff salaries. The relevant employees performed a variety of duties, some legal and some non-legal (such as secretariat support for the APSC's audit committee, administration of Freedom of Information requests etc). It is not possible to identify separately the time spent by these employees on legal matters. The cost above assumes they are performing legal roles at all times.
2. The sum spent on legal services from the Australian Government Solicitor for this financial year to date is $117,122 inclusive of GST. See comment below.
3. The sum spent on legal services from private firms for this financial year to date is $2,902 inclusive of GST. See comment below.
4. The sum spent on legal services from other sources for this financial year to date is $1,298 inclusive of GST. See comment below.
