Does the department/agency print any hard copies of reports/statements/papers they produce?
If yes, please list how many copies, where they are delivered and the cost.

Answer:

The Office of National Assessments does not normally print any hard copies of reports/statements/ papers for formal delivery to entities external to the APS, such as the annual report.

In November 2012, a one off monograph: Robert Marsden Hope Building – A History was printed by the Office of National Assessments commemorating the official opening; 250 copies of the booklet were handed out free to attendees and provided as a reference to the National Library of Australia and the Department of Prime Minister and Cabinet library, at an estimated cost of $500.
