Question:

For this financial year to date:

- How many Reviews are being undertaken?
- What reviews have concluded, and for those that are still ongoing, when will those reviews be concluded
- Which of these reviews has been provided to Government?
- When will the Government be responding to the respective reviews that have been completed?
- What is the estimated cost of each of these Reviews?
- What reviews are planned?
- When will each of these reviews be concluded?

A 'review' is considered to be a formal examination of an area of government policy undertaken by an agency and to which a government response is expected.

Answer:

The Department of Prime Minister and Cabinet will provide a portfolio response to the above question.
