| P3 | Senate | Forshaw | F&PA10 24/5/04 | Senator FORSHAW—Do you have a break-up of how much is on what might be called stationery type printing and what is done as newsletters or calendars and things that are particularly senator specific? Ms Griffiths—I have not got that with me, but I can provide that advice. I will separate the monthly entitlement and the printing for that compared to the personalised stationery entitlement. I can give a breakdown for you. Would that be for the last calendar year and so far for this year? Senator FORSHAW—I am just trying to get an idea, because all of the stationery printing, like letterheads and envelopes, has to be done through Senate printing. Ms Griffiths—I will do it for this financial year. | Answered 31/5/04 |
| P4 | DPS | Ray | F&PA21 24/5/04 | Senator ROBERT RAY—You mentioned that there will be certain costs—$1.4 million. How much of that will be dispensed with issue and how much has to be carried forward to the next financial year? Ms Penfold—Can we take that figure on notice, Senator? It will depend on timing of payments and people's moves. | Answered 19/7/04 |
| P5 | DPS | Faulkner | F&PA23 24/5/04 | Senator FAULKNER—Are you able to say, in the broad, what the various budget elements are for effectively the four projects that you have mentioned: the perimeter security, the construction of bollards on the access roads to the Senate, House and Ministerial wings, the improvement to the windows in the Ministerial Wing and the Melbourne Avenue car park? Ms Penfold—The Ministerial Wing windows are a bit over $100,000, the car park is $340,000 and the figure I have for the Parliament Drive security barriers is $11.25 million. Can we take the breakdown on notice? | Answered 19/7/04 |

| P6 | DPS | Ray | F&PA24-25 24/5/04 | Senator ROBERT RAY—Do you know who did the original? Who did not do it to specifications? ... Senator ROBERT RAY—I am asking who did the construction work, not who supervised it—I can work that one out for myself. Ms Penfold—I think we would have to take that question on notice. We may be able to find out. | Answered 19/7/04 |
| P7 | DPS | Brandis | F&PA25 24/5/04 | Senator BRANDIS—Was there a variation to the subcontract to provide for the different manner in which the work was completed? Ms Penfold—Originally? I have no idea. Again, we can inspect our records for that. | Answered 19/7/04 |
| P8 | DPS | Fifield | F&PA25 24/5/04 | Senator FIFIELD—Do we know that the company doing the work today is not the company that did it before? Ms Penfold—Clearly we do not, because we do not know who the original company was. It may be that we could say that they are not, if we knew how long the current company had been in existence, but I cannot tell you anymore on that at this stage. We would have to take that on notice. | Answered 19/7/04 |
| P9 | DPS | Faulkner | F&PA32 24/5/04 | Senator FAULKNER—What furniture was replaced? What was written off and replaced and what stayed and had conservation work done on it? Mr Smith—I do not know the exact list, from memory, but I certainly could provide that to you on notice. | Answered 19/7/04 |
| P10 | DPS | Faulkner | F&PA32 24/5/04 | Senator FAULKNER—What is the value of that portrait? [Joseph Banks portrait] Mr Smith—I do not have a value for that, but I could look it up if you were to give me the opportunity to do so. | Answered 19/7/04 |
| P12 | DPS | Faulkner | F&PA38 24/5/04 | Senator FAULKNER—What is the next chair refurbishment after the orange brumbies? Mr Smith—We have a furniture replacement and refurbishment budget of about half a million dollars, and there is a whole sequence of projects in that. I am happy to pass that on to you after this meeting, if I could. Senator FAULKNER—That would be helpful. What I am after is the precise number of black leather lounges—it is approximately 100—the number of orange brumby lounges and the budget figure for the leather replacement on those. Mr Smith—If I could take all that on notice, we will have that for you fairly shortly. | Answered 19/7/04 |
