Question:

So when was that [indexation of the disclosure threshold] announced?

Answer:

Indexation of the annual disclosure threshold is calculated on increases in March quarter CPI figures from one year to the next. The March 2013 quarter CPI figures were released on 24 April 2013. The indexed threshold that will apply to disclosures covering the 2013-14 financial year has been calculated as being for sums of more than $12,400. This updated threshold figure was released to the AEC's website on 4 June 2013.
