- (3) Provide an update of moving recruitment advertising online.
(a) Is any recruitment still in printed materials, and if yes, why?
(b) What are the estimated savings for each year over the forward estimates?
- (4) Has the department/agency reduced its printing costs?
(a) If no, why not?
(b) Have printing costs increased, and if yes why and how much?
(c) Has the five per cent savings target been achieved – if yes, how, or if it will not, why not?
(d) What are the estimated savings for each year over the forward estimates?

Answer:

- (1) (a) Yes, the Office has reduced the number of business class flights as a result of amended travel policies. It is not possible to quantify any reduction to business flights as information is not recorded in a manner that provides for interrogation without an unreasonable diversion of resources.
(b) It is not possible to quantify savings into the forward estimate savings as information is not recorded in a manner that provides for interrogation without an unreasonable diversion of resources.
- (2) (a) Yes.

- (b) No impact has resulted at this point in time.
 - (c) It is not possible to quantify the forward estimate savings as the Office has an irregular pattern of spend in relation to these costs.
- (3) (a) Only advertisements for SES or Statutory Officer positions have been undertaken in printed materials.
- (b) There is no significant impact from moving recruitment on-line. The savings are insignificant due to the size and recruitment activity of the Office. It is not possible to quantify the forward estimate savings as the Office has an irregular pattern of spend in relation to these costs.
- (4) (a) Yes.
- (b) No.
 - (c) Yes, the Office has reduced its reliance on printed materials.
 - (d) It is not possible to quantify the forward estimate savings as the Office has an irregular pattern of spend in relation to these costs.
