Question on Notice: Question 83 – REVIEWS

1 July 2012 to 28 May 2013

No.	Title	Concluded / Current	Expected/ Actual Completion Date	Expected / Actual Date Provided to Govt	When will Govt respond to Review?	Cost of Review (in addition to PM&C staff salaries)
1	COAG Construction Industry Costs & Productivity Panel	Paused – PM&C remains ready to support a review if jurisdictions reach agreement on the Panel membership; pending this agreement, the taskforce supporting the Inquiry was stood down in December 2012.	In accordance with the Terms of Reference provided in the 25 July 2012 COAG Communique, the expected date of completion/ submission to COAG was 31 July 2013. Timeframes will need to be revised, pending agreement by jurisdictions.	TBD	Anticipated response by Government: to be determined by COAG following receipt of the final report. Original timeframes will need to be revised, due to disputation from some states and territories on the composition of the panel. This impasse would need to be resolved for the inquiry to proceed.	Approximately $635,000 (cost to the Commonwealth).  At the time it was stood down, expenses for the taskforce came to $57,862.34.
2	Expert Panel on Asylum Seekers	Concluded	13/08/2012	13/08/2012	The Government responded to the review on 13 August 2012, endorsing in principle, all of the recommendations of the Expert Panel on Asylum Seekers report.	The cost of the review included stakeholder and public consultations, preparing and printing the reports, service fees, travel and general expenses and came to $184,432.
