

SENATE STANDING COMMITTEE ON LEGAL AND CONSTITUTIONAL AFFAIRS
OFFICE OF THE ATTORNEY-GENERAL

Question No. 12

Senator Brandis asked the following question at the hearing on 18 February 2008:

Had the Attorney-General at the time he first announced, in his capacity as Attorney-General, that there would be a judicial inquiry into the handling of the Haneef case been briefed that the Australian Federal Police investigation was still current?

The answer to the honourable senator's question is as follows:

Yes.
