

SENATE STANDING COMMITTEE ON LEGAL AND CONSTITUTIONAL AFFAIRS
ATTORNEY-GENERAL'S DEPARTMENT

Output: Corporate Services Group

Question No. 46

Senator Nettle asked the following question at the hearing on 18 February 2008:

Has the government made a decision in terms of the ongoing advertising of the National Security Hotline?

The answer to the honourable senator's question is as follows:

Further advertising of the hotline through the national security public information campaign is being considered by the Australian Government.