Senator Cash asked:

In the Contract Notices published by DIAC, the firm Security and Technology Services was contracted to provide “entertainment services” for $126 071. What was the nature of these services provided?

Answer:

The contract is for the installation of a video streaming system at the Curtin Immigration Detention Centre. The system allows for the one video to be shown to a number of video screens.

The system also provides access to television programs from a number of countries.
