Australian Government Solicitor (AGS)

1.	AGS's records for hospitality and entertainment costs for the financial year 2011-12 to 29 February 2012 show a figure of $136,000. These expenses relate predominantly to client hospitality. As a government business enterprise operating on a commercial and competitive basis in providing legal and related services to government and its agencies, AGS regards appropriate hospitality for client agencies as necessary to promote our legal services and skills and to strengthen our business relationships. Some AGS hospitality costs also relate to events involving employees (eg internal meetings, events to mark particular achievements by AGS or employees and end of year functions). Given AGS's commercial operations, it would not be appropriate to identify specific details of each event.
2.	Not applicable.
3.	See response to part 1.
4.	Not applicable.
5.	AGS has a number of events planned for the rest of 2011-12, but does not expect overall expenditure for 2011-12 to increase significantly from previous years. Given AGS's commercial operations, it would not be appropriate to identify specific details of each event.
6.	Not applicable.
7.	See response to part 6.
8.	Not applicable.
