

SENATE STANDING COMMITTEE ON LEGAL AND CONSTITUTIONAL AFFAIRS
AUSTRALIAN FEDERAL POLICE

Question No. 82

Senator Ludwig asked the following questions at the hearing on 23 May 2007:

Regarding answers in relation to question on notice 121 from February Estimates:

- a) Regarding the 24 Mort St and Fujitsu House buildings:
- i) How much are those leases worth?
 - ii) Were they established as temporary accommodation while the new HQ was being set up?
 - iii) When were those locations identified as worth relocating into the new HQ?
 - iv) How many occupants do these buildings hold?

The answer to the honourable senator's question is as follows:

- a) i) The leasing cost for 24 Mort St is $504,330 per annum (ex GST).
The leasing cost for Fujitsu House is $815,100 per annum (ex GST).
- ii) No, these facilities were established to meet the growth of the AFP.
 - iii) These properties will be considered as part of the AFP's long term accommodation strategy following the hand over of the new headquarters at ANZAC Park West and the ongoing accommodation requirements of the AFP.
 - iv) 24 Mort Street accommodates 89 staff and associated training facilities.
Fujitsu House accommodates 162 staff.