Question No. 76

Senator Barnett asked the following question at the hearing on 18 October 2010:

- a. What is the status of each election commitment from the 2007 election within the portfolio?
- b. Which 2007 election commitments are experiencing slippages? Why? Where relevant, what are the revised implementation dates? What are the implications of this slippage?
- c. Are there any 2007 election commitments that will not be implemented? If yes, please provide details. Were departmental resources provided to implement these commitments? How much? What will happen to the funding now?

The answer to the honourable senator's question is as follows:

Election commitment	Status
Counter-Terrorism White Paper	Delivered . The White Paper was released on 23 February 2010.
Funding 500 extra AFP officers	In staged progress. Funds committed in 2008/9 Budget.
	Implementation is on track.
Conducting a Federal Audit of Police Capabilities	Delivered. The Federal audit of police capabilities (known as the Beale Review) "New Realities: National Policing in the 21st Century" was finalised in line with expected time frames. It was publicly released in December 2009 and implementation of recommendations is underway.
Joint Inter Agency Taskforce West (JIATF-W)	Alternative approach taken. The AFP has previously advised Government there is a strong relationship and unencumbered exchange of law enforcement intelligence with JIATF-West.
AFP recruitment and retention program	Delivered. Significant programs are underway: Current commitments are on track for delivery. Progress has been made with early increases in number of Women in the AFP (eg all recruit courses now have a target of 50% women); targeting recruitment programs which recruited rural and remote women as PSOs. A people strategy and workforce planning framework have been delivered;
	research targeting women and Indigenous Australians has been completed and findings put into effect.

AFP Indigenous Recruitment Strategy	Delivered. Significant programs are underway: Current commitments are on track for delivery. Progress has been made with early increases in the number of Indigenous staff in the AFP eg targeting recruitment programs which recruited Indigenous Australians as PSOs. Research targeting indigenous Australians has been completed. Indigenous graduate programs have increased whilst Indigenous cadetships will commence in 2010. AFP wide Indigenous Cultural Appreciation program is on track to deliver in 2010. AFP is now a sponsor of several Indigenous recruitment and education programs with senior staff engaged across the sector. Recruitment marketing targets contemporary Indigenous communication channels.
National Crime Database	In progress. In August 2009, the Standing Committee of Attorneys General agreed to a set of measures to respond to organised crime including action to address impediments to information and intelligence sharing and interoperability. The Australia New Zealand Policing Advisory Agency (ANZPAA) Board subsequently endorsed the Protocol for Information Sharing for Serious and Organised Crime and the Protocol on Multi-Jurisdictional Investigations for Serious Organised Crime on 2 September 2010. A feasibility study into the establishment of a national case management capability was recently completed and will be considered by the CrimTrac Board of Management on 2 December 2010.
Increase in X-ray machines at ports	Delivered. The commitment to increase cargo inspection facilities at four regional ports has been delivered with each of the four new and expanded cargo examination facilities having commenced full sea cargo examination operations.
