Senator MILNE: Given that, we did not hear very much detail from the government. Has there been any consultation with Screen Australia in relation to the tax offset for either increasing it to 40 per cent for film location or the games? Has there been discussion with you on that particular matter to get more detail?

Answer:

Screen Australia has discussed with the Department its various submissions to a number of Government reviews, some of which have concerned the extension of the Producer Offset to games.
