Notice of motion – General business (at the giving of notices)

I give notice that on the next day of sitting, I shall move—That the Senate:

1. Notes that:
 - a. The Senate Economics Legislation Committee resolved that questions taken on notice during Budget Estimates in May 2023 be provided to the Committee by 14 July 2023.
 - b. There were 12 responses to questions on notice from Budget Estimates in May 2023 tabled the day before or the day of the commencement of Treasury portfolio Additional Budget Estimates on 25 October 2023;
 - c. There were a further four responses to questions taken on notice that had not been provided to the Committee at the commencement of Treasury portfolio additional Budget Estimates; and
 - d. Evidence provided to the Senate Economics Legislation Committee during Additional Budget Estimates shows that responses to all these questions were provided to the approving Minister's office by no later than 17 July 2023, and the majority by 29 June 2023.
2. Requires the Minister representing the Treasurer to attend the Chamber at following the conclusion of motions to take note of answers on Wednesday, 8 November 2023, to provide an explanation, of no more than 10 minutes, of the failure to comply with the resolution of the Senate Economics Legislation Committee;
3. Any senator may move to take note of the explanation required by paragraph 2; and
4. Any motion under paragraph 3 may be debated for no longer than 1 hour, shall have precedence over all business until resolved, and senators may speak to the motion for not more than 10 minutes each.
