

To Senators on the Senate Select Committee on Climate Policy,

I feel an intense disappointment at Federal Labor's proposed emission trading scheme. It seems to me worse than useless; in fact it is so poor it does not rate much comment. It is simply a pretence at addressing an urgent issue by a government in thrall to powerful commercial interests.

Peter von Bertouch