

Summary of Sub 124

This submission claims that it can be difficult for franchisees to make accurate judgements about the ongoing financial viability of franchisors. The submission acknowledges that the code changes in March 2008 improved the situation but outlines difficulties experienced in receiving up-to-date information from the franchisor after disclosure has been completed and agreements have been signed.

This submission is from a franchisee.