

Summary of Sub 94:

This summary describes a case in which it is alleged that contracts offered to franchisees due for renewal were too harsh, pushing franchisees out of business. It also suggests that franchisors should be scrutinised before being allowed to set up a franchising system.

This submission is from a franchisee.