

Summary of Submission 97

This submission describes a case in which earning potential projected before a franchise agreement was entered into was never reached, with the result that the business owner had to put their company into liquidation.

This submission is from a franchisee.