

Summary of Sub 98

This submission argues against the insertion of 'good faith' into the franchising code on the basis that it might increase legal uncertainty about the meaning of the term. It also argues against any increased disclosure requirements or a requirement to lodge disclosure documents with a third party. Instead, it supports government-funded education for prospective franchisees.

This submission is from a franchisor.