

ACMA oral submission to SSCECA inquiry into effectiveness of broadcasting codes

In oral submissions provided to the Inquiry into Effectiveness of Broadcasting Codes of Practice on 23 May 2008, the Australian Communications and Media Authority made reference to its recent research into use of media and communications by Australian families. For the information of the committee members, a copy of ACMA's report is available at http://www.acma.gov.au/WEB/STANDARD/pc=PC_310893

I hope this will assist the committee. Please contact me if further information is required.

Yours sincerely
Richard Fraser
Executive Manager (A/g)
Codes, Content and Education Branch
Australian Communications and Media Authority