

Good afternoon,

I am a 27 year old food and freedom lover. Unfortunately I feel like my freedom is under threat by conservatives wanting to push their views and influence on my day to day activities.

I feel that Gordon Ramsay's kitchen nightmare series is both educational and shows people a true sense of what it is like in a real kitchen. Adults such as our parents are the ones responsible for what children watch not some government regulation that rip's our day to day freedoms out of our grasp.

We have the freedom to choose to go to church or not, lets try and keep the freedom to hear what we choose to hear and make the judgement ourselves as to what is appropriate for our children not from a conservative, draconian, backwards, religious relic.

I trust you will take my views on board.

Regards,
Chris Foley.
