

Dear Senate Committee,

I am sending my support of this scheme, because it is important that Australia explore alternative energy sources, and find a way to make them financially viable.

This is an inventive way to give government support to an emerging yet necessary industry.

Wendy Suiter