

Government Response to Senate Standing Committee on Economics

Exposure draft of the legislation to implement the Carbon Pollution Reduction Scheme

The Government responded to the proposals embodied in the Committee's recommendations during consideration of the CPRS legislation in Parliament from May to December 2009. The Government has now convened the Multi-Party Climate Change Committee to consider a carbon price more broadly and the CPRS legislation is not being progressed.