

The President of the Senate.

I totally oppose holding a plebiscite with regard to our constitution. The form of Government that operates here in Australia, has served us well and we must be thankful to our forefathers for their foresight.

If a plebiscite is held this will not give any indication as to how a future head of state will be chosen.

Yours truly,

Frances A Henderson.