

Humane processes can create humane results.

We are a part of the world, it is great to protect our safety and harmony in this country at least to current standards.

We need to face the fact of asylum seekers and deal with it powerfully and wisely, in full awareness of the opposing forces at play.

Our humanity and the wellbeing of innocents must be maintained.