Subject: Social Justice Commission for Aboriginals and TS Islanders

Dear Peter Hallahan,

I hear with concern that the Aboriginal and TS Islanders Social Justice Commission is to be abolished.

I am deeply concerned about this development. It would appear to be happening while the public is concerned about the effects of the war in Iraq.

I suggest that we need this commission to remain, to maintain at least minimum ethical standards in the way in which we treat the original peoples of this land.

Yours Sincerely
