27B Re-verification of identity	of agent of pre-commend	cement customer etc.

Scope

(1) This section applies to a reporting entity if:

(a) at a time before the commencement of this section, the reporting entity commenced to provide a designated service (the pre-commencement designated service) to a customer; and

(b) the customer dealt with the reporting entity, in relation to the provision of the pre-commencement designated service, through an agent of the customer; and

(c) after the commencement of this section, a suspicious matter reporting obligation arises for the reporting entity in relation to the customer; and

(d) such other conditions (if any) set out in the AML/CTF Rules are satisfied.

Note 1:For suspicious matter reporting obligation, see section 39. Note 2:For tipping-off offences, see section 39.

(2) The reporting entity must not continue to provide, and must not commence to provide, any designated services to the customer, in a case where the customer deals with the reporting entity through the agent, until:

(a) either:

(i) the reporting entity; or

(ii) a person acting on the reporting entity's behalf under a section 34 authorisation;

carries out the applicable agent identification procedure in respect of the agent; or

(b) the reporting entity takes such action as is specified in the AML/CTF Rules.

Note 1: The AML/CTF Rules may provide that the applicable agent identification procedure carried out under subsection (2) may be different from applicable agent identification procedures carried out in other circumstances—see the definition of applicable agent identification procedure in section 5.

Note 2:See also section 34A (when applicable agent identification procedure deemed to be carried out by a reporting entity).

Offence

- (3) A person commits an offence if:
- (a) the person is subject to a requirement under subsection (2); and
- (b) the person engages in conduct; and

(c) the person's conduct breaches the requirement.

Penalty: Imprisonment for 2 years or 120 penalty units, or both.

Civil penalty

(4) Subsection (2) is a civil penalty provision.

Interpretation

(5) For the purposes of this section, assume that Part 1 had been in force at all material times before the commencement of this section.

28B Re-verification of identity of agent of low-risk service customer etc. Scope

(1) This section applies to a reporting entity if:

(a) at a particular time (the relevant time), the reporting entity commences to provide a designated service to a customer; and

(b) under the AML/CTF Rules, the service is taken to be a low-risk designated service; and

(c) the customer dealt with the reporting entity, in relation to the provision of the designated service, through an agent of the customer; and

(d) at the relevant time or a later time, a suspicious matter reporting obligation arises for the reporting entity in relation to the customer; and

(e) such other conditions (if any) set out in the AML/CTF Rules are satisfied.

Note 1:For suspicious matter reporting obligation, see section 39. Note 2:For tipping-off offences, see section 95.

(2) The reporting entity must not continue to provide, and must not commence to provide, any designated services to the customer, in a case where the customer deals with a reporting entity through the agent, until:

- (a) either:
- (i) the reporting entity; or

(ii) a person acting on the reporting entity's behalf under a section 34 authorisation;

carries out the applicable agent identification procedure in respect of the agent; and

(b) the reporting entity takes such action as is specified in the AML/CTF Rules.

(c) the person's conduct breaches the requirement.

Penalty: Imprisonment for 2 years or 120 penalty units, or both.

Civil penalty

(4) Subsection (2) is a civil penalty provision.

33 Re-verification of identity of agent etc.

Scope

- (1) This section applies to a reporting entity if:
- (a) at a particular time:
- (i) the reporting entity; or

(ii) a person acting on the reporting entity's behalf under a section 34 authorisation;

has carried out, or has purported to carry out, the applicable agent identification procedure in respect of a particular agent of a customer to whom the reporting entity provided, or proposed to provide, a designated service; and

- (b) at a later time, any of the following subparagraphs applies:
- (i) an event prescribed by the AML/CTF Rules happens;
- (ii) a circumstance specified in the AML/CTF Rules comes into existence;
- (iii) a period ascertained in accordance with the AML/CTF Rules ends; and

(c) such other conditions (if any) set out in the AML/CTF Rules are satisfied.

Note: See also section 34A (when applicable agent identification procedure deemed to be carried out by a reporting entity).

(2) The reporting entity must not continue to provide, and must not commence to provide, any designated services to the customer, in a case where the customer deals with the reporting entity through the agent, until:

- (a) either:
- (i) the reporting entity; or

(ii) a person acting on the reporting entity's behalf under a section 34 authorisation;

carries out the applicable agent identification procedure in respect of the agent; or

(b) the reporting entity takes such action as is specified in the AML/CTF Rules.

Note 1:The AML/CTF Rules may provide that the applicable agent identification procedure carried out under subsection (2) may be different from applicable agent identification procedures carried out in other circumstances—see the definition of applicable agent identification procedure in section 5.

Note 2:See also section 34A (when applicable agent identification procedure deemed to be carried out by a reporting entity).

Offence

(3) A person commits an offence if:

(a) the person is subject to a requirement under subsection (2); and

(b) the person engages in conduct; and

(c) the person's conduct breaches the requirement.

Penalty: Imprisonment for 2 years or 120 penalty units, or both. Civil penalty

- (2) The AML/CTF Rules may provide that, if:
- (a) either:
- (i) a reporting entity; or

(ii) an internal agent of a reporting entity acting on the reporting entity's behalf under a section 34 authorisation;

carried out the applicable agent identification procedure in respect of a particular agent of a customer to whom the reporting entity provided, or proposed to provide, a designated service; and

(b) the applicable agent identification procedure was carried out in such circumstances as are specified in the AML/CTF Rules; and

(c) the customer is or becomes a customer to whom another reporting entity provides, or proposes to provide, a designated service; and

(d) such other conditions set out in the AML/CTF Rules are satisfied; this Act (other than Part 10) has effect as if the applicable agent identification procedure had also been carried out in respect of the agent by the other reporting entity.

Applicable customer identification procedure carried out by accredited person

(3) The AML/CTF Rules may provide that, if:

(a) a person who is accredited under AML/CTF Rules made for the purposes of subparagraph 34(1)(a)(iii) carried out the applicable customer identification procedure in respect of a particular customer to whom a reporting entity provided, or proposed to provide, a designated service; and

(b) the applicable customer identification procedure was carried out in such circumstances as are specified in the AML/CTF Rules; and

(c) the customer is or becomes a customer to whom another reporting entity provides, or proposes to provide, a designated service; and

(d) such other conditions set out in the AML/CTF Rules are satisfied; this Act (other than Part 10) has effect as if the applicable customer identification procedure had also been carried out in respect of the customer by the other reporting entity.

Applicable agent identification procedure carried out by accredited person

(4) The AML/CTF Rules may provide that, if:

(a) a person who is accredited under AML/CTF Rules made for the purposes of subparagraph 34(1)(a)(iii) carried out the applicable customer identification procedure in respect of a particular agent of a customer to whom a reporting entity provided, or proposed to provide, a designated service; and
