

The amendments proposed in Schedule 2 of the Copyright Amendment Bill 2006 will provide a more comprehensive range of tools for law enforcement to tackle copyright offending. These amendments will assist the AFP in evaluating the seriousness of copyright matters that are referred, and in taking appropriate action against matters that are accepted for investigation.

The AFP has not yet developed an informed view on schedule 1 of the Bill and therefore does not propose to comment at this time.