

Dear Sir

I am deeply concerned that the treatment of refugees, in accordance with current Australian Government policy is inhumane and unworthy of a civilised nation.

If these things were happening in any other country in the world, especially one with whom Australia is NOT allied, I suspect our government would be censuring them to the full extent of their ability.

Please, treat all humans as you would wish to be treated by them

Have compassion, it's a great vote winner if nothing else.

Judy Donnelly