

Dear Secretary

The shortcomings and abuses of human rights carried out by the immigration department against people entrusted to their care have now become public knowledge.

The former head of this department is not the Australian ambassador to Indonesia. To show that we in Australia do care about the way people are treated I propose that the new ambassador be removed from his post immediately.

John Schindler
Denmark WA