Stolen Generation Compensation Bill 2008:

The Australian Prime Minister Kevin Rudd has apologised to the stolen generation, in saying sorry Kevin Rudd has acknowledged the wrongdoing of the Government at the time. It follows then that, we the stolen generation are entitled to monetary compensation for being wrongfully removed from our families. People that are wrongfully imprisoned are awarded thousands and thousands of dollars in compensation. The Canadian government has paid compensation to their own Native American Indians for being removed wrongfully from their families.

Yours sincerely,
