

I am writing to express my concern in regard to imported beef which due to be implemented in March. I am not against trade; I am for an equal playing field and that is if Australian Beef can be traced from the paddock to the plate then it should be the same rule for countries importing meat.

I am in support of Australian farmers and their future

Please consider

Regards

Lenore Anderson