

I consider it too much of a threat to our world class beef industry to import beef into Australia from countries which have experienced Mad Cow disease, unless these countries have in place identical checks and balances as our beef producers adhere to.

Yours sincerely,
Tony Wade.