

Hello,

I'm unable to drive and I have a quiet well trained small dog and would like to be able to take him on the train. I can't take him in a crate as he was abused before I got him and freaks out and barks when crated. Taxis are too expensive and it would be fantastic and useful to be able to take him on public transport.

Kind Regards,

Sharneen Gotty