

Having lived in a remote location for almost 20 years I am disgusted at the level of deprivation cause by geographical isolation. Our kids are severely disadvantaged because they live away from universities and the removal of the youth allowance will only exacerbate this situation. We have to finance accommodation for our children in Perth at great cost and others living in the metro area do not have to provide for their children in this way.

Why would a Labor Government treat their constituents in this way?

Mark Whisson
Karratha
Western Australia