

Australian Greens' Additional Comments

I thank the Committee and those who made submissions on my bill. I reiterate the Australian Greens' commitment to implement a country of origin labelling system that provides fairness and transparency for Australian producers and consumers, and provides clear labelling provisions for locally manufactured food.

I intend to bring forward new legislation based on the valuable feedback received through this inquiry.

Senator Christine Milne
Leader of the Australian Greens

